ON THE TROLLEY.

The red is melting in the river, The red is dying in the sky, The evening star begins to quiver, Belated birds go darting by, Come, let us follow, follow, follow, And find how fine it is to fly!

By pine-woods where, when noon was sunny The air with spicy balsams flowed, By gardens full of sweets and honey Where summer-long the rose has glowed, By weary wife and loitering lover, Come, flash along the river-road.

The forest wall across the river, Darkness within the curling tide, The fragrant winds about us shiver, We rock, we race, we rush, we ride, Thrilled with the sweep of airy motion And glad because the world is wide!

The night soars up the purple spaces, The whirlwind winds divide the deep, Strange gleams are on familiar places, Swift lightning underneath us leap, As forward flying, flying, flying, Upon the thunderbolt we sweep! —Harriet Prescott Spofford in the Youth's Companion.

The Catholic fair tonight was largely attended. Judge Moron of Mesa delivered an eloquent address on "The Sisters of Mercy." His remarks were punctuated by the expressed approbation of his hearers. The address was followed by a vocal solo by little Miss Anna Forster, who is but 8 years old. She was called back, not only because she was so young, but also because she sang so splendidly. Mr. Kilroy of Phoenix then told of the order of Franciscans and its connection with Arizona.

It is far wiser to keep disease away than to fight it after it comes. An occasional dose of Hostetters' Stomach Bitters makes people hungry at meal time, and gives the digestive apparatus power to get full nutrition out of food.

Hostetters' Stomach Bitters

Mr. Kilroy was followed by Mr. Turner of Phoenix, who rendered a violin solo, which in turn was succeeded by a vocal solo with an encore by Mrs. Kilroy.

The Mexican Sunday school entertainment which was to have taken place tomorrow night has been postponed until next week.

There will be a special train to Phoenix tomorrow night to take the Woodmen lodge down. Others can, of course, avail themselves of the opportunity of going to Phoenix.

The pump will be run by steam, and has a capacity of 100 miners' inches continuous flow of water. With this pump it is proposed to irrigate grain and alfalfa lands. If the experiment proves a success it will be somewhat of an innovation to irrigation in this valley.

Mr. Dorman has no doubt but that water in sufficient quantity can be secured if the well is sunk deep enough.

PAUL MORTON TALKS

He Says the West is Enjoying Chunks of Prosperity.

Mr. Paul Morton of Chicago, head of the traffic department of the A. & N. W. & S. A. railway, is a guest of the Shreveport. He is tall and heavily built and there is a good deal to remind one of his noted father, Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture under the administration of Cleveland.

"Our system," said Mr. Morton, speaking of his railroad, "has a daily purchased several hundred miles of road that puts the A. & N. W. & S. A. into San Francisco and gives us a total of about 7,300 miles. We are doing a handsome business in all the country reached by us. The west and southwest is in magnificent condition. We have 1,000 miles of track in Texas, and in that state we carried 100,000 more bales of cotton this year than in 1897. Texas has close on 3,000,000 of people now, being an empire in itself. "Out west the people of Kansas and Nebraska are enjoying solid chunks of prosperity. They own more and owe less than at any period of their history. I think the prosperity of the west-ran country has come to stay, and as there should be a series of crop failures the material development of that region is going to be on a scale of tremendous magnitude." — Washington Post.

MOD LAW IN A NEBRASKA TOWN.

Vigilantes Threaten to Lynch Alleged Murderers.

Franklin, Neb., Dec. 21.—Much excitement prevails here tonight over the assassination of Peter Krechbaum, and a mob of farmers is being organized to lynch James Tumbman and William Cole, the alleged murderers. They were taken from the local jail at noon and conveyed to the Alma prison, Sheriff Boyd and his posse being pursued by infuriated citizens. The mob surrounds the jail tonight, hoping to prevent the prisoners from being removed again before the vigilantes can gather in sufficient force to storm the jail.

Scouts are out in the country tonight calling out the vigilantes, who are pouring in from town in large numbers, armed and ready for the fight which is sure to follow the storming of the jail. Sheriff Boyd has a force of determined deputies, and will fight. No state troops have been called for, as none are in the state.

The alleged murderers and their victim have been men of wealth in this region for many years. The developments indicate a month's preparation for the murder. Two weeks ago Peter Krechbaum, a bachelor, disappeared. He had drawn $1,000 from the local bank and carried the money to his home.

A week later Cole and Tumbman were noticed in possession of his farm, selling stock, vehicles, etc. In answer to questions they answered that Krechbaum had left the country and was everything to them. They exhibited a lease and deed in evidence and attempted to have the same recorded, but the clerk became suspicious because the alleged signature of Krechbaum was misspelled.

A brother of the missing man was notified and came from Burlington last week, offering $1,000 reward for evidence as to his brother's whereabouts. This started a large number of persons to work. In the meantime Tumbman and Cole continued to sell property from the farm. Last night a watching party noticed some fresh earth in a deserted hog pen, and on digging found the body of the farmer. He had been killed with an ax. In addition he had been repeatedly shot. The sheriff at once started for the Cole residence and found Tumbman, Cole, too. Both men started for their guns, but were captured after a desperate struggle. Four rifles and a quantity of shells were found in the residence ready for use.
